What is the purpose of a Community Partner Advisory Group (CPAG)?

- Identify local educational needs
- Communicate Extension's value
- Identify new collaborative opportunities
- Strengthen existing Extension relationships
- Create opportunities for policymaker interaction
- Provide input on program effectiveness and impact

Community Partner Advisory Groups Organized

CPAG Liaisons
Deb Jones
JP Ploetz
Kathleen Haas

What do Community Partner Advisory Groups (CPAGs) do?

- Bring the perspectives of different groups
- Foster partnerships and better understanding of Extension
- Sponsor events
- Identify new community resources
- Share Extension's stories with the community